SUBJECT-MATTER OF THE PROCEEDINGS

R 262.1 (b) RoP – Invitation to comment – R 9.3 RoP – Time extension

REASONS OF THE ORDER

The request for an extension of the deadline of 30 July 2025 is granted in accordance with Rule 9.3 (a) RoP insofar as the deadline for submitting comments is extended until 12 August 2025. This date takes into account the upcoming holidays of the court. The reason for the extension of the deadline is the absence of the Claimant's representatives. In order to ensure that the parties are not subject to different time limits in these proceedings, the newly set deadline applies equally to both parties.

As a precautionary measure, please note the following: In the cases in which the Applicant wishes to have access, the parties involved requested that a number of information be treated as confidential, in accordance with Rule 262.2 RoP, when submitting their written statements and exhibits. These requests have been granted. As the Applicant has only filed an application under Rule 262.1(b) RoP, access can only initially be granted to the redacted versions submitted by the parties with their written submissions and exhibits, in which the confidential information has been blacked out. Renewed applications for protection of confidentiality with regard to the written submissions and exhibits filed within the framework of a Rule 262.1 b application are not permitted. Protection of confidential information must be requested when the respective written submission and exhibits are filed. However, subsequent correction or review of the written submissions and exhibits filed is not possible in the pending application.

ORDER

The deadline for comments on the request pursuant to Rule 262.1 (b) RoP is extended for both parties until 12 August 2025.
